

The Duke Ellington Orchestra

Contract Rider

1. The Duke Ellington Orchestra (Hereafter referred to as “Artist”) shall receive 100% Top Star Billing in any and all publicity releases and paid advertising, including but not limited to programs, flyers, lobby boards, marquee as follows:

2. The artist has the right to cancel (or postpone to a mutually agreeable date) this engagement upon written notice to the Purchaser at least four (4) weeks prior to the date of the commencement of the engagement if the Artist enters into a contract prior to such four (4) weeks period for the services of the orchestra in motion pictures or on a commercial radio and/or television series and/or show.

3. If for any reason the conductor is unable to attend this said engagement, a suitable replacement will be provided. Such replacement will not modify any of the terms or conditions of the contract contained herein.

4. The purchaser shall not, unless approved by the Artist or Artist’s manager, schedule the orchestra leader or any member of the orchestra for any radio or television appearances. Nor shall Artist permit any portion of the performance to be broadcast, photographed, recorded, filmed, taped or embodied in any form for any purpose and Purchaser agrees to not authorize any such recording. Nor shall Purchaser admit to performance any such persons carrying tape, film, cassette or video recording devices.

5. Artist shall have the absolute right of approval of any acts on the show, including set length, billing, and placement in the show. In the event the orchestra shall rehearse and/or accompany any other acts, the orchestra shall receive additional compensation, in addition to the terms outlined on the face of the contract.

6. In the event this engagement included provisions that the orchestra participates in any manner in the gross admission receipts or cover charges, and the Purchaser agrees that it will not issue more than 50 complimentary tickets. Only one entrance door shall be used and a representative of the Duke Ellington Orchestra shall have access to the Box office at all times throughout the day and evening of engagement for the purpose of verifying ticket sales. Purchaser will furnish Artist representative with a signed Box Office statement and a copy of all company receipts, at completion of engagement.

The Duke Ellington Orchestra may require 25 complimentary tickets to each performance.

7. All payments are to be made in full, without any deductions whatsoever, to Artist prior to the first performance, in cash, Certified Check, or Bank Draft only to:
